Smith's Compendium of the Law of Real and Personal Property,

Connected with CONVEYANCING, for the use of Students and Practitioners. By JOSIAH WILLIAM SMITH, B.C.L., of Lincoln's Inn, Esq., Barrister-at-Law. In 1 thick vol. 8vo. Price £1 8s. cloth. 1856.

"We must say that he has performed the task of selecting and arranging with discretion and ability. . . . The book, if used in the manner recommended by the editor, as a refresher to the memory, and a repository of information that is wanted in daily practice, will be found of great value."—JURIST, 5th April, 1856.

"It will be seen from this outline that the work is extremely well planned; the topics are arranged in the natural order as they flow out of one another, and thus immensely aid the reader's memory. He writes like a man who is master of his theme, clearly and concisely."—LAW TIMES, Dec. 1, 1855.

"Of the manner in which Mr. Smith has acquitted himself of the task of supplying the deficiency he points out, we have great satisfaction in being enabled to speak in terms of the highest praise. The work before us has evidently been compiled with the most conscientious care; we have taken some trouble to test its contents, and can vouch for its merits in point of scrupulous accuracy."—THE EXAMINATION OF ARTICLED CLERKS, February, 1856.

Greenwood's Manual of Conveyancing;

A Manual of the Practice of Conveyancing; showing the present Practice relating to the daily routine of Conveyancing in Solicitors' Offices. To which are added Concise Common Forms and Precedents in Conveyancing;—Conditions of Sales, Conveyances; and all other Assurances in constant use. By G. W. GREENWOOD. In 12mo. Price 7s. 6d. cloth. 1856.

"The information under these heads is just of that ordinary practical kind which is learned from experience, and is not to be gathered from treatises.

"The work is well done, and will be very useful to the class for whom it is intended."—JURIST, 3rd May, 1856.

"The Author gives, in a clear and well-arranged manner, a statement of the duties of a Solicitor in general Conveyancing business. He distinguishes between the duties of the Solicitors on each side, pointing out their respective rights as to preparation of documents, charges, &c.; and adds numerous suggestions, not only useful to a clerk or young practitioner, but many of which would be found of service by professional men generally."—LEGAL OBSERVER, March 22, 1856.

"This is a useful little manual, designed as a guide to the inexperienced practitioner in the practical conduct of conveyancing business. It is written in an easy intelligible style, and comprises a variety of very necessary information and advice upon the matters of which it treats. These matters are such as, in the absence of a work of this character, are only to be learnt by actual experience; and, indeed, there are points touched upon in the pages before us on which enlightenment may be gathered even by those whose career does not date as from yesterday."—LEGULEIAN, Easter Term, 1856.

"The work is extremely well done."—LAW TIMES, April 22, 1854.

"We regard this work as a useful vade mecum, not only to the lawyer and law student who, not satisfied merely with dealing in quibbles and points of practice, desires to cultivate the science of law, but also to the classical scholar, who will find the information which it contains a useful aid to the study of many of his favourite authors."—IRISH JURIST, May 13, 1854.

"The volume before us is a recent contribution to the study of civil law, and it is a contribution both valuable in itself and seasonable in the time of its appearance.

"Mr. Cumin has executed his office of translator with great care and scrupulous accuracy. He has always used the same word in the same sense, and never employed a modern word used in a sense akin but not exactly corresponding to an ancient one. The English Manual of Civil Law will be of the greatest assistance to students. Let any one read through the text of the Institutes, and master enough of Commentary to have a general knowledge of his subject, and he will then appreciate the value of Mr. Cumin's work. . . . A work in a catechetical form is of the greatest service as a supplementary contribution to the study of a work which, though elementary, is so hard really to understand and remember as the Institutes."—GUARDIAN, June 28, 1854.

Starkie's Law of Evidence.—New Edition.

A Practical Treatise of the Law of Evidence. By THOMAS STARKIE, Esq. Fourth Edition, with very considerable Alterations and Additions; incorporating the Statutes and Reported Cases to the time of Publication. By G. M. DOWDERSWELL and J. G. MALCOLM, Esqrs., Barristers-at-law. In 1 vol. royal 8vo. 1853. Price £1 16s. cloth.

"Fortunately for the Profession, the new edition has been intrusted to gentlemen, of whom one is well known, not only as a ripe and accomplished lawyer, (doctrinâ malidus;) but as a judicious editor, knowing how to withhold as well as how to apply his hand. Amid the present plague of reports, mere industry is not sufficient to qualify even a second-rate editor.

"It is evident that the editors have not been blinded by their respect for the author, but have altered, corrected, and amended, wherever they have seen occasion. Such a course could not be pursued safely upon a small stock of learning or of judgment; and, in our opinion, it has been pursued, not only with safety, but with manifest advantage to the book; so that the fourth edition of Starkie is to the existing law, what the first edition was to the law in 1824.

"We wish we had some means of identifying Mr. Malcolm's portions of the work. As it is, being hitherto unknown to authorship, he must be content with the praise of having borne a part where all was good."—JURIST, 18th December, 1852.

"It is also the only work of which a new edition has been brought out at such a time as to render it possible that it should apply to practice, with any degree of consideration and accuracy, the modern changes in the law.

"We think the editors will have gone far towards restoring the admirable work of Mr. Starkie to its original character of the best work on the Law of Evidence which has yet been produced."—LEGAL OBSERVER, Nov. 27, 1852.

"It will be seen from this analysis, and our former observations, that Mr. Finlason's edition of the Acts and Rules is comprehensive in its plan and complete in its details."—JURIST, No. 10, N. S.

"This is, in our judgment, a most excellent and carefully-written book. The equity powers given to the Common Law Courts are admirably done. The views taken by Mr. Finlason of the practical bearing and operation of these Acts are remarkably shrewd and suggestive. Such men, and their Editions of Statutes, tend very greatly to improve the laws they expound, and powerfully assist the objects of the legislature."—LAW MAG., Feb., 1855.

"We have now before us the work of Mr. Finlason, whose previous labours in expounding other statutes entitle him to the favourable consideration of the profession. The notes to the various new enactments are very full and valuable."—LEGAL OBSERVER, Jan. 6, 1855.

Select Cases in Chancery.

"This is a useful volume, upon the plan of Smith's Leading Cases. A case is taken which expounds some leading principle of equity; to this Mr. Macnaghten has appended a note, in which he collects the subsequent cases, that show the application to particular circumstances, of the principle determined in the leading case—in fact, the expansion of the law, its growth thenceforward down to the present time. There is no method so apt as this for acquiring a scientific knowledge of the law; and therefore we recommend every law student to peruse the volume before us with profound attention. It will help to lay a solid foundation of law in him, which will be of infinite service in his after studies and practice."—LAW TIMES, Dec. 4, 1850.

"These are the sort of reports we wish to encourage. This volume has been very judiciously selected from heaps of rubbish; a notice not only of old cases, but of new ones which are really useful to the profession. The notes are after the fashion of Smith's Leading Cases, and they are tersely and ably written."—LAW MAGAZINE, Feb. 1851.

By GEORGE SPENCE, Esq., one of Her Majesty's Counsel. Vol. II. in royal 8vo. 1849. Price £2 2s.

* * Vol. I. may be had, price £1 11s. 6d. boards.

"A mass of matter, cases, arguments, and discussions, thrown together in a work of such bulk, is like a library containing as many different works as this contains cases.

" presenting the authorities on each point in the ipsissima verba of judicial decisions; but connecting, modifying, approving or condemning them in his own words, which will be deservedly considered of little less weight by the student than the dicta to which they relate.

"Such is the variety of topics, subdivided into an almost infinite ramification of cases and points, into which the learned author is necessarily led;—few writers, we apprehend, could be found sufficiently persevering to pursue every topic in such a list with the same untiring vigour, till each in its turn was exhausted,—few would have the learning, fewer still the resolution."—LAW MAGAZINE, No. 22.

"We must far surpass the limits of an article were we to attempt to discuss, with any sort of completeness, the vast variety of subjects which Mr. Spence's second volume contains,—subjects treated by him with a fulness of detail indispensable in a book designed not only as a guide, pointing out to the student the great principles upon which the law in its complexities of actual business depends, and tracing the mutual connexion of those extensive provinces of Equity, with whose details he is expected to become familiar, but also as a storehouse, from whose well arranged repositories the practising lawyer may readily furnish himself with the armour needed for the conflicts of the Bar."—LAW REVIEW, No. 22.

" There remains a vast amount of valuable information, both theoretical and practical, upon topics not to be found in any of the recent treatises, which must be carried to the sole credit of Mr. Spence's own original and laborious investigations; and from this results the peculiar character of the book, that it is at once trite and recherché, containing all the stock information on subjects within its scope which may be found in the current text-books, and superadded to these, the result of an experienced lawyer's researches in neglected paths, and resumsés or criticisms (where criticism is called for) on the most recent decisions, doctrines, and innovations of the Court of Chancery.

"A more dense mass of living law, available alike for study, reference, and practice, has seldom been presented to the Profession."—JURIST.

" The reader, however, will be surprised at the mass of information which it contains; all the principal branches of learning are explored.

" There never was less bookmaking in any book than in this."—LAW MAGAZINE, N.S., No. 8.

" A work which promises to be one of the most learned and philosophical treatises on the largest branch of British Jurisprudence which our language has produced."—LAW TIMES.

In Norman v. Phillips Exch. Trinity Term, 1845, June 7, on a case being cited from The Jurist, of Bushell v. Wheeler, (8 Jurist, 532,) decided May 11, 1844, Q. B. ALDERSON, B., inquired whether the Reports of that Term in the Queen's Bench had yet appeared, and on being answered in the negative said, "I have no doubt that this report from The Jurist is perfectly correct. My observation of The Jurist leads me to think that the Cases in it are extremely well reported." The Report was then read, and its authority admitted by the Court.

THE alterations in the Allowances to Solicitors and in the Fees of Court, effected by the General Order of Court of the 30th January, 1857, are so extensive as to render useless to the Practitioner any Forms of Costs hitherto published. An entirely new feature in Chancery Practice is introduced by this Order, viz., the recognition of two Scales of Fees and Charges, regulated by the amount in question in each cause or matter before the Court; which practice, though long known at Common Law, has never, until now, been adopted in Chancery. By reason of these changes, some such Hand-Book as the present has become not merely a matter of convenience, but an absolute necessity; and, with that conviction, the following pages have been compiled.

[This is the charge, unless it be increased by the chief clerk, who will allow 13s. 4d., or 1l. 1s. when the attendance will justify it; but where, from the length of the attendance, or from the difficulty of the case, the judge shall think 1l. 1s. an insufficient remuneration for the services performed, or where the preparation of the case to lay it before the judge shall have required skill and labour, for which no fee has been allowed, the judge may allow such further fee, not exceeding 1l. 1s., or where the higher scale is applicable 2l. 2s., as in his discretion he may think fit.

The judge has also power to increase the fee to 10l. 10s., under Order of 2nd of February, 1855.]

APPENDIX.

ORDER OF COURT,

FRIDAY, THE 30TH DAY OF JANUARY, 1857.

WHEREAS of late years various alterations have taken place in the practice and procedure of the Court of Chancery, whereby certain of the fees heretofore allowed to the solicitors of the court have ceased, and others of such fees have become inapplicable to the duties which the solicitors have to perform; and it is desirable that a new and revised list of fees should be made :

Now, upon consideration thereof,

The Right Honorable ROBERT MONSEY, Lord CRANWORTH, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, with the advice and assistance of The Right Honorable Sir JAMES LEWIS KNIGHT BAUCE, and the Right Honorable Sir GEORGE JAMES TURNER, the Lords Justices of the Court of Appeal in Chancery, the Honorable the Vice-Chancellor Sir RICHARD TORIN KINDERSLEY, the Honorable the Vice-Chancellor Sir JOHN STUART, and the Honorable the Vice-Chancellor Sir WILLIAM PAGE WOOD, doth order and direct as follows :—

1. The several Orders and parts of Orders following are discharged, so far as regards all costs incurred subsequent to the time when this Order comes into operation :

The Order of the 26th day of February, 1807, except so much thereof as is mentioned in the Second Schedule hereto.

The Sixth Schedule to the Order of the 26th October, 1842.

The 121st Section of the Order of the 8th May, 1845.

So much of the Thirty-third Section of the Order of the 22nd April, 1850, as relates to the fees to be charged by and allowed to solicitors.

The Fourth Section of the Order of the 7th August, 1852, and the Schedule A. appended to such Order.

The Fifth Section of the Order of the 23rd October, 1852.

2. Solicitors are to be entitled to charge and be allowed the fees set forth in the column headed Lower Scale in the First Schedule hereto, in the several cases following, unless the court shall make order to the contrary; that is to say,

1st. In all suits by creditors, legatees, (whether specific, pecuniary, or residuary,) devisees (whether in trust or otherwise), heirs at law or next of kin, in which the personal or real, or personal and real estate for or against or in respect of which, or for an account or administration of which, the demand may be made, shall be under the amount or value of 1,000*l*.

2ndly. In all suits for the execution of trusts in which the trust estate or fund shall be under the amount or value of 1,000*l*.

3rdly. In all suits for foreclosure or redemption, or for enforcing any charge or lien, in which the mortgage whereon the suit is founded, or the charge or lien sought to be enforced, shall be under the amount or value of 1,000*l*.

4thly. In all suits for specific performance, in which the purchase money or consideration shall be under the amount or value of 1,000*l*.

5thly. In all proceedings under the Trustees Relief Acts, or under the Trustee Acts, or under any of such acts, in which the trust estate or fund to which the proceeding relates shall be under the amount or value of 1,000*l*.

6thly. In all proceedings relating to the guardianship or maintenance of infants, in which the property of the infant shall be under the amount or value of 1,000*l*.

7thly. In all proceedings by special case, and in all proceedings relating to funds carried to separate accounts, and in all proceedings under any railway or private Act of Parliament, or under any other statutory or summary jurisdiction, and generally in all other cases where the estate or fund to be dealt with shall be under the amount or value of 1,000*l*.

3. In all other cases solicitors are to be entitled to charge and be allowed the fees set forth in the column headed Higher Scale in the First Schedule hereto, unless the court shall make order to the contrary as to all or any of the parties.

4. The fees of court, now collected by means of stamps, are to be reduced and varied as set forth in the Third Schedule hereto.

The fees set forth in the column headed Lower Scale in the Third Schedule hereto, are to be paid in all cases in which the Lower Scale of fees is to be charged by and allowed to solicitors, under the provisions of the second section of this Order; and the fees of court set forth in the column headed Higher Scale in the Third Schedule hereto, are to be paid in all other cases.

The solicitor or party instituting any proceeding in respect of which he claims to pay the fees of court according to the Lower Scale, is to file with the clerk of records and writs a certificate in the form hereunder set forth, of which certificate the clerk of records and writs is, at the request of any solicitor, or any party acting in person, in the suit or matter, to mark a copy.

On production of such copy of the certificate, the officers of the court are to receive and file all proceedings in the suit or matter bearing stamps according to the Lower Scale.

In any case certified for the Lower Scale of court fees in which it shall happen that the solicitor shall become entitled to charge and be allowed according to the Higher Scale of solicitors' fees, the deficiency in the fees of court is to be made good.

In any case in which the fees of court have been paid upon the Higher Scale, and in which it shall happen that the solicitor shall become entitled to charge and be allowed only according to the Lower Scale of solicitors' fees, the excess of fees of court so paid may be allowed upon the taxation of costs, if the circumstances of the case shall, in the judgment of the taxing master, justify such allowance.

This Order is to come into operation on the 1st day of February, 1857.

Form of Certificate for paying the Lower Scale of Court Fees.

(Title of Cause or Matter.)

I hereby certify, that to the best of my judgment and belief, the Lower Scale of fees of court is applicable to this case. Dated, &c.
